Fire Destroys At Least 50 Homes

By Irene Pettyjohn and Jon Thompson

The most expensive forest fire in Crawford County's history burned out of control from 3:58 p.m. Tuesday, May 8, until about 11 p.m. when most of the blaze was contained.

Firefighters estimated more than 50 houses burned to the ground in an area from Thendara Rd. northeast to Stephan Bridge Rd., Shaw Rd., Pine Rd., and North Down River Rd., to Bald Hill Rd. Damages were initially estimated at $2.4 million by county equalization director Bill Borchers. At 9:55 p.m. Governor Blanchard declared it a disaster area.

DNR firefighter Duane Brooks said the fire produced more monetary loss than the large Mack Lake fire a couple years ago.

"It was the scariest fire I've ever been in," said Beaver Creek Fire Chief Ed Holtcamp. "It was the most houses I've ever seen burn in my 27 years of firefighting."

Strong winds pushed the blaze northeast quickly from Pappy's Trail, where the fire started.

"This was the worst fire I've fought because of the wind," said Howard Taylor, a firefighter with the DNR crew for 15 years.

"In all the 37 years I've been around house fires in Grayling, I saw more houses burn today than all the other years combined," said Sheriff Harold Hatfield.

Only two persons were listed as injured from the fire — two firefighters — as of midnight Tuesday. DNR Conservation officers, Sheriff deputies, and other law enforcement personnel evacuated 300-400 persons from the fire area.

Among some of the homes that were reported as destroyed or close to the fire's path were Carl Yost's, Jay Stephan's, Del Sheldon's, Nancy and David Lemmen's, Dick Wakeley's, Joe Kuck's, and Rax Ann Adam's.

Officer Dean Goss, who is also the assistant fire chief for the Grayling City and Township Fire Dept., said the destruction was unbelievable.

"I saw 14 houses burning in a single block in the Shaw Park area," he said. Goss said many homes on Pine Road and both sides of North Down River Road were lost. He said the first house that burned was on Pappy's Trail.

"There is no way to take an accurate count of the homes and cabins burned," stated Goss. "We evacuated about 300 people."

The fire path jumped around. One house on Stephan Bridge Rd. did not burn while houses on each side burned. Garages and outbuildings burned at Mike and Beth Wieland's but their house did not burn. That happen in several places.

Police suspect the blaze started near Pappy's Trail and a person burning brush was the cause.

While this major fire was burning, other fires were blazing in the county Tuesday afternoon. A fire in Indian Glen's destroyed homes there. Three small fires were reported near Arrowhead Rd.

Every township fire department in the county was called to

Large Hometown Crowd Supports GMS Band at State Competition

The four adjudicators at the M.S.B.O.A. Middle School State Band Festival on May 5 split their ballots, and the result was a II (Second Division) rating for the Grayling Middle School Band.

The II came as a disappointment to the large hometown crowd which filled the Joseph Stripe Auditorium at the 1:00 p.m. performance, responded with a standing ovation and hoped for a I. And then it was standing room only, with the high school band room lined with wall to wall people, for the sight reading segment which immediately followed the performance.

GMS Band Director Dennis Ormsbee explained the balloting of the judges: Of the three performance adjudicators, two gave the band II ratings and a third awarded the band a I. The sight reading judge also gave the band a I. Had the group received their two I's in performance and their II from the sight reading judge, they would have earned a I (excellent) overall rating.

Nevertheless, Director Ormsbee was pleased with the II rating, which he said, "is really good at state competition." Mr. Ormsbee emphasized that the judges were

"tough but fair."

"The students played music way above their classification and should be proud of their performance," said Mr. Ormsbee. Their selections, two of which were different from the District Festival, included: "Spartans of Tomorrow" by Balent, "American Pioneer Suite" by Fox (a Class A middle school piece), and "Exaltation" by Swearingen (from the Class C high school list).

The director said, "It was great to see all of the hometown crowd out to support the band. [They were] appreciated, not only in the way they turned out for the performance, but also all their help for the festival." He added that many people from other schools commented on "how well the festival was run and all the really fine help that was here."

Grayling was one of six sites throughout Michigan to host a Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association Middle School State Band Festival on Saturday. Of the 17 groups which performed here, six received I ratings, 8 received II's, and 3 received III's.

Cable TV Adding 15 New Channels

Fifteen new channels will be added to the cable television system in Grayling this summer.

C-Tec Cable Systems of Michigan is currently rebuilding its system in the Grayling area. Jeff Miller, system manager, says the $750,000 rebuilding project should be completed by late June or early July.

Miller said C-Tec is currently negotiating to add PASS as one of new channels. PASS, a Detroit pro sports network, telecasts most of the Detroit Tiger games. Tiger fans in Grayling started a petition drive in Grayling two years ago to have PASS added to cable television channels.

Gallon Pins were awarded to: Ralph Coon, Jr., 2 gallon; Gary F. Bryant, 3 gallon; Eugene E. Kindler, 5 gallon; and Clarence Burse, 13 gallon.

There was a record breaking number of first time donors also: Andrew Burkley, Timothy Hough, James Petrie, Hannah Peterson, Jeremy Beroser, Joseph Lee, Frank Hartwick, Scott Barker, Heather Stephenson, Jeffery Edinger, Max Prosser, Gregory Sanctant, Andrea McLaughlin, Raymond Carr, Brent Day, Albert Rock-hord, Dwayne Morse, Kenneth Heendley, Danielle Waldo, John Beeman, Matthew Branch, Starleen Stanley, Kristen Walker, Ross Pike, Jennifer Garner, Angelo Poli, Heather Willoughby, Craig Neimon, Ian Bolender, Eugene Cadarette, Richard O'Brien, Julie Jensen, Robert Tinker, Mickey McKinney, Adam Mead, Heather Peevey, Peter Opperman, David Maule, Cheryl Johnson, Robert Harris, and Scott Cinciala.

The next Blood Drive will be Wednesday, June 27.

2 Inmates Escape From Camp Lehman

Two inmates walked away from the Camp Lehman minimum security facility last Thursday, May 3rd.

Michael Lee Westmoreland, 29, from Livingston County, and Patrick Donald Roberson, 24, from Cheboygan County, were discovered missing during the Camp's 11 p.m. head count.

Westmoreland was serving 6-10 years for assault less than murder and 10-15 years for breaking and entering. He had about two years and five months before he was eligible for parole.

Roberson was serving 7-25 years for armed robbery and two years for possession of a firearm, felony. He was not eligible for parole until January, 1993.

Both men are still at large.

Law Enforcement Memorial Ceremony Set for May 15

The annual Law Enforcement Memorial Ceremony will be held at the Crawford County Sheriff's Department Tuesday, May 15th, at 2 p.m. Former officers and the public are invited to the ceremony. Refreshments will be served after the ceremony.

River House Receives $2,500 from Weyerhaeuser

On Friday, May 4, Kathi Eskilsen, an employee of the Weyerhaeuser Corporation, presented a check for $2,500 from the Weyerhaeuser Foundation to Ferne A. Farber, Director of the River House Shelter Program. Farber indicated that these funds will be used to implement an Outreach Program within the service counties of Crawford, Ogemaw, Oscoda, and Roscommon.

The goal of the Outreach Program is to reach more victims of domestic violence by placing River House staff and/or trained volunteers in outreach offices throughout the communities served. River House, which serves approximately 100 adults and 140 children per year, hopes to reach an additional 25 families this year through this outreach effort. Basic services for victims of domestic violence include: 24 hour crisis line and shelter, food, clothing, transportation, medical treatment, individual and group counseling, child care, advocacy and assistance with reporting crimes to the police and prosecutors.

River House provides residential and non-residential services. Its crisis line number is (517) 348-8972; collect calls are accepted.

$2,500 DONATION--Kathi Eskilsen, left, presents a check for $2,500 from the Weyerhaeuser Foundation to Ferne Farber of the River House Shelter Program.

Chamber Hosts Tourism Informational Program

A special "Eggs & Issues" program on Thursday, May 10, 8:30 a.m., at the Copper Kettle Restaurant, Grayling, will feature Executive Director for the Grayling Convention and Tourism Bureau, Paul Beachnau.

The topic of the "Eggs & Issues" program is dedicated to the Tourism industry both locally and regionally. Beachnau will also discuss tourism trends and how they directly effect the Grayling Community and our geographic region.

The cost for the Breakfast program is $6 for Grayling Chamber of Commerce Members and $7.50 for non-chamber members. Money will be collected at the door. Reservations are needed, and can be made by calling the Chamber office at 348-2921, by Wednesday, May 9th.

New Channels

Included in the new channels are MTV, the Comedy Channel, The Discovery Channel, and Cable.

Currently, C-Tec has about 1,500 subscribers in the Grayling area, says Miller, and about 44 miles of cable lines. Depending on the final price of the rebuilding project, C-Tec may also be able to go ahead with some expansion. Miller says the next two areas C-Tec is looking to expand into are the AuSable Trail area and the Beaver Island area.

With the addition of 15 more channels to the Grayling system, Miller says the basic rate of $11 a month will increase to probably $16.50 a month.

Fire Destroys

fight the fires and Kalkaska County put out the Arrowhead Rd. fires. The DNR called in other area units and Camp Grayling units also assisted.

The strong gusting winds did not die down until some rain mercifully swept through the area about 8:30 p.m. But before the winds died down, they shifted from the southwest and the path of the fire went back to some areas it had missed before and more houses were lost.

Problems firefighters ran into were crown fires (fires racing among the tops of trees), power lines falling, and propane tanks exploding. About 1,400 Top of Michigan customers lost power because of downed lines.

Beth Wieland was at her home trying to gather up a few items before the fire came.

"It came down the power line and it sounded like a train coming," she said. "The heat and smoke were so bad we had to leave."

Police had trouble evacuating people. Some were refusing to leave the danger area. Other people were causing problems at the roadblocks and one man was arrested for carrying a weapon. As the firefighters began getting a handle on the blaze, reports of people looting in the evacuated areas started coming into the central dispatch office at the sheriff's dept.

People throughout Grayling pulled together during the tragedy. Motels offered lodging; restaurants and grocery stores offered food and items to firefighters and evacuated people. Camp Grayling opened its doors to the evacuated people for the night.

As the Crawford County Avalanche went to press early Wednesday morning, DNR firefighters were planning on meeting at the Command Center set up at Duane LaMotte's Down River Pines store at the intersection of M-72 East and Stephan Bridge Rd. early Wednesday morning for the next step. Firefighters were concerned another dry, windy day would start up smoldering fires.

The next issue of the Avalanche will publish detailed DNR accounts of property loss and maps showing the burned areas.

Let's Talk About It

By Joe Murphy

If you missed the Campbell's Ozark Country Jubilee Show at the High School Auditorium on the 28th of April you missed some great country music. The Grayling Lions and Lioness Clubs sponsored it. The members of the show displayed a great deal of talent and put on a heck of a good show. But I guess Grayling isn't ready for top rank talent. The attendance was very poor and I'm afraid the clubs took a real bath in bringing them here. Folks complain that there is not much entertainment in Grayling, yet fail to support efforts to correct that situation. Come on folks, when efforts are made to bring some top rank talent into town, let's support them.

To the young to look ahead fifty years seems like an eternity. To the old looking back fifty years is as if it were yesterday. I can look back fifty years and recall conversations word for word. It is strange how common every day events stick in your mind and more momentous events may be forgotten. Computers are wonderful machines, but only that, the human brain is mighty hard to beat. Some folks say the computers are superior to our brain but they seem to forget the human brain invented it. Sounds, smells, etc. not encountered in many years can bring instant recognition of them. Faces not seen in many years somehow ring a bell, maybe you can't put a name to the face, but some how you know you knew them at one time. The human brain is one of the wonders of life.

I don't think we give animals credit for their brains as much as we should. They seem to be a lot more intelligent than we give them credit for. I know for a fact that horses and dogs have a good memory. I sold a saddle horse and it was gone about six years, the man had to sell it, and called me asking if I'd buy it back. I sure did and we went up near Gaylord to get it. I rode the horse back home, with no signals from me the horse went right to our back door and stopped. I was surprised that he remembered that long.

I've told about how our cow dog would walk through the barn once when we brought them in in the fall. They were the the cows that would calve in the spring. The steers and young cattle stayed outside in an open shed. The dog knew from that one trip which went into the barn. She would stand at the barn and let just the ones that belonged in the barn past her. Then she would go into the barn and if any were in the wrong stalls she got them back where they belonged without any help from us. In fact, she remembered where each cow went better than we did. Don't sell animals short, they must have a pretty good brain.

I have often wondered about dreams that animals have. I think most of us have seen dogs having dreams; I wonder how far down the chain goes. Do the lower animals have their own little dreams also?

Guest Column

Count On Us to Care

By Dennis J. Renander
President and Chief Executive Officer
Mercy Health Services North

In 1776, John Adams cried out in discouragement, "Is anybody there? Does anybody care? Does anybody see what I see?" I express a sentiment not of discouragement, but rather of challenge, opportunity, and the desire to share what I see are the selected issues and concerns that we at Mercy Hospital will face in the future.

In a recent report titled "The Fiscal Health of Michigan Hospitals," Peter Pratt, a consultant in the health care industry, writes, "In the last three years 150 of the nation's 6,000 plus hospitals have closed their doors, 12 in Michigan. One-half of Michigan's 102 hospitals with fewer than 150 beds lost money last year. On any given day over one-third of the state's 335,000 hospital beds do not need linens changed. No patient has lain there. If the economic yardstick of manufacturing (percentage of plant capacity in production) were applied to hospitals, the trade associations would scream 'depression.'"

"The patient (Mercy Hospital) is not terminally ill and in truth has performed well. Few industries have buffered more radical declines in sales volumes, drastic changes in the products they deliver and tighter regulations, deteriorating prices and stronger competition, all while providing a public service to which most people believe they have the right."

Some 30 years ago a medical sociologist, Anne Summers, wrote a book entitled, "Health Is A Community Affair." For many years I have cited her book and am in agreement, but I have notably added that in recent years health care has become more of a "political affair." It needs to remain a community affair.

In the 1950s, we had little government involvement in health care, and yet, by the 1960s the state and federal governments were major players as a result of the enactment of Medicare and Medicaid. By the 1970s, everyone was predicting the passage of national health insurance. By the beginning of the 1980s, however, we were experiencing more health care competition and more government involvement as a means of controlling health care inflation. At the end of the last decade, the government was controlling our overall health care system, and yet, at the same time the number of uninsured grew to over 37 million people in the United States. Today in Michigan there are one million uninsured.

What the role of government will be in the 1990s remains open to speculation. If the health care system follows the current trends, it will continue to unravel in terms of financing while costs will continue to grow with no major changes seen in the federal government's involvement. But this scenario isn't likely to happen.

Instead, the two biggest players in health care services, government and large corporations, will increasingly control their expenditures by placing greater burdens on individuals. That action in turn will not only lead to a higher percentage of total health care paid by individual patients, but a greater number of uninsured as more and more people go without insurance all together. It is a living political issue. Perhaps we are caught in a web not of our own making.

Many rural communities today are facing the indignities of subtraction, for there is something about a rural hospital that can cure more than physical ailments, and that can go a long way toward restoring the citizens to their sense of civic conscience. Having Mercy Hospital here gives a feeling of respect. A community that loses its hospital has one less thing to take pride in.

To the citizen's eye, the hospital's main facility may not look like anything special, merely a modest building set in the middle of rural America. But to most of us within this area, it is an institution for all seasons starting with prenatal care and continuing through the entire life cycle. In the interim, each family in some way is likely to make use of Mercy Hospital. I don't think we can survive without a hospital.

The blessings of Mercy Hospital extend well beyond the city limits as the institution provides service to all the residents of Crawford and the surrounding counties. Sooner or later we will touch just about everyone in the counties we serve. We are very much a part of this community and our social mission is paramount.

In the 1970s, it was the belief that health care was a right for all; and excess overshadowed cost containment and quality. In the 1980s, cost cutting came to overshadow excess and quality. In the 1990s, efficiency must mean more than cost cutting. Efficiency must mean balancing cost containment, quality, and excess. If health care remains a right, any imbalance must favor quality and access.

Mercy Health Services North, Mercy Hospital/Grayling stands ready to work with the communities in the development of a community health care system that truly is a "community affair" and not a political affair. We are working with and through our state and federal legislators to assure there is an appropriate balance. The success of Mercy Hospital and its community health care system truly rests with the local consumers and providers of health care services as we strive for that balance to assure access and quality.

Yes, John Adams, we at Mercy Hospital do care and in keeping with this year's National Hospital Week slogan, you can "Count On Us To Care."

Notes from the Woods

By Nancy Lemmen

Well, I'm getting a little excited and a little nervous. Book Club is meeting next Saturday and we're discussing a book I nominated — "Cold Sassy Tree" by Olive Ann Burns.

Being at Book Club when they discuss my nomination is a bit like taking friends to my favorite Oriental restaurant or convincing them to see the Swedish film I loved next time we're all in a city. Now that I've dragged the whole party to my favorite spot, I start worrying.

What if they don't love the hot and spicy soup as much as I do? What if they don't find the film as magnificent as I did? The burden of the evening's entertainment rides heavily upon my increasingly jittery shoulders.

But actually I think they will like "Cold Sassy Tree," the story of a widower in a small Georgia town around the turn of the century. To the dismay of his family and the townspeople of Cold Sassy Tree, E. Rucker Blakeslee causes a minor scandal by remarrying immediately after the death of his wife.

When I read it originally two years ago, I found it one of those books that begged to be discussed with fellow readers. But I couldn't find anyone who had read Burns' story of the stubborn iconoclast who violates a small town's rigid and traditional social and religious norms.

So I went to Book Club on nominations night and told them that even if they didn't choose to discuss "Cold Sassy Tree," they must read it anyhow because I wanted to talk about it.

Well, it made the final cuts, along with such titles as "The Joy Luck Club" by Amy Tan, "This Boy's Life" by Tobias Wolff, and "Crime and Punishment" by Feodor Dostoevsky. Next Saturday we discuss it. I hope the others like it as much as I did.

Throughout the seven years that I have been a member of Book Club, some of my nominations have been winners. Perhaps my most inspired one was "Beloved" by Toni Morrison. We had a far-reaching discussion that moved us from the novel's late 1880's rural setting to the inner cities of today, where — a full century after its abolition — slavery's ugly tentacles still reach out to adversely affect the black family unit.

And likewise, others of my nominations have been weaker. Perhaps my biggest disappointment was "East of Eden" by John Steinbeck. Dave was lobbying for a discussion of "The Grapes of Wrath." But I remembered being extraordinarily moved by the religious themes and symbolism of "East of Eden" when I read it in high school.

I thought that the discussion turned out just fair. And immediately, I regretted that we had not chosen Steinbeck's masterpiece work about the disastrous Oklahoma dustbowl of the 30s and the Joad family's doomed attempts to find economic and spiritual salvation in California.

And so it goes with nearly all the books we have read in the past seven years. Sometimes a book I dislike upon the actual reading stimulates a fine discussion, while other times a wonderful story leads to a fairly mediocre one.

Yet that is one of the many beauties of Book Club. I find it exciting to get together on one Saturday a month to exchange our wide variety of reactions and opinions and ideas on whatever book the ten to twenty of us just read.

Another of Book Club's strengths is that it validates the act of reading. While there are evenings when I really should be doing my laundry or going through the mail, I can justify curling up on the living room couch to read because "I have to get this novel done for Book Club."

Also, Book Club has expanded my reading repertoire. I figure that, of the nearly 70 titles we have read for discussion since 1983, roughly 90 percent of them were books I had not yet read.

Furthermore, perhaps 75 percent of them were books I never would have chosen if left to my own tastes and interests. What a loss to have never read "Sophie's Choice" by William Styron, "The Color Purple" by Alice Walker, "Blue Highbury" by William Least Heat Moon, "Stones for Ibarra" by Harriet Doerr, "Night" by Elie Wiesel, "War Day" by Whitley Streiber and James Kunetka, "Mr. Bridge" and "Mrs. Bridge," both by Evan Connell.

Sometimes a particular writer catches some members' fancies and they read more by and about that person. Dave and Teri became our resident experts on Ernest Hemingway when we discussed three of his novels in 1987. Patti and I enjoyed "Oh, Pioneers!" so much that we each bought several other Willa Cather books, as well as two different biographies of the American regional author.

We attempt to cross genres by including drama, poetry, science fiction, mythology, biography, nonfiction, and philosophy. A challenging 90-page treatise by Freud, "Future of an Illusion," stimulated a lively yet friendly discussion of religion at the December meeting in 1985.

While our selection method is relatively free and unstructured, we try to include world authors as well as Americans, classics as well as contemporary fiction. Whereas Dave nominates modern fiction by Jack Kerouac and Jim Harrison, Tom convinced us to try "The Plague" by Camus, and Judy had us read "Heart of Darkness" by Conrad.

Every individual member is important and we each seem to assume a different role. Bill serves as a model for the non-directive discussion leader. Paul keeps us to our inch rule (all books must be paperback, no more than one inch thick). Susan provides the literary analysis.

We move our meeting place from house to house, and the meetings themselves are models of civility. Cigarette smoking and drinking alcoholic beverages are banned, in an effort to keep the air and our minds unpolluted. While we tend to congregate for small talk around 8:00, the official discussion is started by Barb, Book Club's leader and founder, a half hour later.

Then the discussion facilitator (usually the book's nominator) takes over and we continue until 10:00. We eat dessert and drink coffee or tea and chat a while longer. Each meeting is an oasis of civilized behavior in a world normally filled with noise, action, chaos, and discord.

We meet for the final time before summer this month to discuss the aforementioned "Cold Sassy Tree." Then we have the next three months to tackle William Manchester's mammoth work, "The Last Lion," a biography of Winston Churchill. Dave has already finished it and recommends it highly to me.

I just look forward with great anticipation to begin reading it in June. Picking up a new book has always been a delicious experience for me. Thanks to Book Club, I don't deny myself that regular pleasure.

'Anti-Detroit' not always 'anti-black'?

THE CITY OF DETROIT is having its trouble these days, including problems with its incinerator, expiration of a special city tax on utilities, organizing and financing its school system, to list just a few.

To help solve its problems, Detroit increasingly has turned to the state for help. Lately, it appears, state assistance has been a bit more difficult to secure. The utility tax, for example, was somehow permitted to expire, and Detroit officials expected automatic renewal. Instead, the legislature gave the city a rather rough time. For another, the city's incinerator was shut down by state officials because it didn't meet certain standards of pollution control. It took some negotiating to get it going again.

Why is everyone picking on Detroit? A long article in a recent Sunday edition of Detroit's combined daily newspaper pointed to "Detroit-bashing" as a popular sport.

The same article explored even more devious fears — specifically, that outstaters are practicing racism against the city.

BLACK LEGISLATIVE leaders see anti-Detroit sentiments growing.

"The Detroit-bashing for a while was on more subtle terms," according to Rep. Nelson Saunders of Detroit, chairman of the Legislative Black Caucus. "I see it now rearing its ugly head and becoming more visible."

Veteran Detroit lawmaker Rep. Morris Hood concurred: "I have sensed over the last year and a half, a greater degree of reluctance to support legislation that helps Detroit."

But is reluctance to vote for Detroit measures — or "Detroit bashing" — outright racism? Many Detroit leaders see it as such.

Mayor Coleman Young, a legislative leader before becoming mayor, is inclined to charge racism in many issues. Closing the incinerator, predictably, received the racism label from Mr. Young.

Arthur Johnson, president of the Detroit branch of the NAACP, claimed anti-Detroit legislative sentiment is rooted in racism.

"Most fair minded observers see Detroit-bashing as a very serious problem, with deep roots, that has been going on for a long time," said Mr. Johnson. "It is a problem at its core of racism against the city. It is a problem ultimately that threatens everyone, and everyone in the end pays."

Sen. David Holmes, who has been around the capital for the last 30 years or so, said racial overtones have always been present.

"Detroit is a key word for anti-black," said Mr. Holmes. "We in the Legislature who live in Detroit have come to accept that."

DOES THIS MEAN that everyone who opposes measures tailored to help Detroit is necessarily racist, and anti-black? Not in my book.

Outstate, there is a large residue of resentment against Detroit, because many outstaters believe Detroit gets special treatment from state and federal government, and this special treatment — not accorded their hometowns outstate — cost outstaters extra tax dollars.

Tax dollars for the ridiculous downtown Detroit people mover are resented. Tax dollars to bail out Detroit schools are resented. Tax dollars in ever higher and higher welfare costs, most of them winding up in Detroit, are resented. Tax dollars for the Detroit Art Institute and Detroit museums and the Detroit zoo and other elements of the so-called "Detroit equity" package are resented.

Is Mayor Coleman Young resented outstate? Yes... but not because he's black. He's resented because outstaters, too, are aware of the police fund scandal and rising Detroit crime and drug problems, and deteriorating Detroit neighborhoods, and limousines and jet planes, and, yes, the paternity suit. Outstaters are aware that Mr. Young blames his failures on the media, or the state, or President Reagan, or racism. The truth in the eyes of many outstaters is that Mr. Young, simply put, is not an effective mayor; and the result is resentment by outstaters who believe they are paying unjustly for his failures.

Is there anti-black sentiment in mostly-white areas outstate? Yes, there's some... but not nearly as much as claimed by those who shout "racism" at every turn.

IN MEMORY

Dori Jean Lovely - May 15, 1988.

When God calls little children to dwell with Him above, We mortals sometimes question the wisdom of his love; Perhaps God tires of calling the aged to His fold, So He picks a rosebud, before it can grow old.

God knows how much we need them, and so He takes but few,

To make the land of heaven more beautiful to view.

Believing this is difficult, still somehow we must try.

The saddest word mankind knows will always be good-bye.

So when a little child departs, we who are left behind,

Must realize God loves children, angels are hard to find.

NO FEES.

We're waiving all fees on our Home Equity Line of Credit and our Homeowner's Loan between now and June 30.

And unlike some banks, there are no annual fees with these home equity loans, either.

NO WAIT.

Once you apply, you'll get an answer on your loan in as few as 24 hours. All you need to do is provide us with the necessary information, including the existing balance on your mortgage, which you can get from your mortgage lender, and your home's assessed valuation.

HOME EQUITY LOANS.

You can borrow anywhere from $5,000 to $100,000, depending on the equity in your home. And Old Kent gives you two choices:

Home Equity Line of Credit — offers the flexibility of writing a check whenever you need a loan.

Homeowner's Loan — offers the comfort of a fixed rate, fixed term loan. Both offer advantages over many credit cards or installment loans:

- Lower interest
- Lower monthly payments
- Tax deductible interest — consult your tax advisor.

Old Kent offers low interest rates, too. The current Annual Percentage Rate is 11½% or 12%, depending on your line of credit. The APR may vary, but will not exceed 18%, and can go as low as 10%.

1-800-FON-KENT

You can apply for your home equity loan right over the phone by calling 1-800-FON-KENT. And to make it even easier, if you don't live near an Old Kent office, we'll close the loan at a place that's convenient for you.

So don't wait. Call Old Kent and say yes to this special no-fee, no-wait offer — today.

Obstacles to Healthy Families Discussed Here

The Bishop's Task Force on Substance Abuse will meet Wednesday evening, May 16, at 7:30 p.m. in the Board Room at Mercy Hospital. Father Jim Mausolf will present a video by Terry Kellogg entitled: "Intimacy in Recovering Family Relationships."

Terry Kellogg is a pioneer in Family Systems therapy. In this video he discusses how the recovery process opens up family members to renewed intimacy and openness with each other. Obstacles to healthy family relationships are explored and aids presented in removing these obstacles. The process of affirming healthy family systems is explained. The public is welcome.

Weyerhaeuser Distributes 1750 Seedlings

AS ONE OF THE SEVERAL activities to celebrate Earth Week, employees of the Weyerhaeuser Company Structurwood Mill distributed 1750 Douglas fir and blue spruce tree seedlings to Grayling, Frederic, and Roscommon Elementary School students. Frederic students are shown above. Rodger Anger, Weyerhaeuser General Manager, Ray North, and Kent Ruby, Operations and Maintenance Team Members, distributed the seedlings personally to each student. Planting instructions went along with the specially packaged seedling, to assure their care and growth. Shown is Rodger Anger at the Grayling Elementary School.

Church Hosts 11th Annual Spring Pancake Supper

The Grayling congregation of Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints will sponsor their 11th annual spring pancake supper Saturday, May 12th, beginning at 5 p.m., and going until they run out of pancakes or customers. Begun in 1980, it was conceived as a celebration of the end of our long cold winters and in appreciation of the return of warm weather, sunny skies, and that unrivaled delicacy of our area, maple syrup.

The supper features, AuSable Buttermilk pancakes, fresh seasoned pork sausage, fresh maple syrup, and many other condiments and garnishments, beverages, and calories.

All of the food is donated by the local congregation, and all of the proceeds is donated to the World Hunger Fund. The Grayling Saints have been able over the years to make over $3,000 available to needy people in the world. Everyone welcome, donations will be accepted. The church is located on North Down River Road directly opposite I-75 exit.

YOU CAN GET four years at med school a 28-foot motor home an in-ground pool a two-car garage or any number of things ON THE HOUSE.

With our Golden Credit Line Home Equity, only your imagination and the equity in your home limit the major purchases you can make.

So you can add on that guest room, buy that time-share condo in Tampa, or build that stronger stock portfolio on the house.

And along with all these opportunities, you'll have easy access to your Golden Credit Line Home Equity, with your special Golden Credit Line Checks. You also have the advantage of having your credit line secured by the equity in your home (in which case, the interest may be tax-deductible on your federal return). All this with no membership fee or annual fee.

5 GHS Students Earn Conference Academic Honors

Five Grayling High School students were named to the Michigan Huron Shores Conference All-Athletic Academic Team.

Kevin Austin, Paula Nunn,

Melanie Ojala, Margarita Perez, and Nicole Trenary all qualified for the team by earning at least a 3.5 average while participating in a sport.

Perez and Ojala both had 4.0 averages and played basketball, volleyball, and softball. Nunn earned a 3.82 average and was a cheerleader. Austin earned a 3.80 average and wrestled. Trenary earned a 3.58 average and played basketball, and volleyball.

Ojala Advances To Economics National Finals

Jennifer Ojala, of Grayling, is one of the 11-member Lake Superior State University team that has won the Students in Free Enterprise (SIFE) Regional Competition in Chicago and has qualified for the International Expo in Kansas City, Missouri on May 20-22.

The LSSU team won the 12-team North Central States Regional Competition, using displays, demonstrations, videos, and written and spoken explanations of 14 different projects.

"It's the first time our team has won the regional and qualified for a national final," said Charles Meiser, economics professor at LSSU, and faculty advisor. "We've done well at the Regionals many times, but never won it."

Lake State competitors included: Paul Barbe of North Bay, Ontario; Jordie Christensen of Iron Mountain; Deanna Fischer of Flint; Jennifer Ferguson of St. Ignace; Thomas Galbraith of Mio; Diane Kieliszewski and Bradley Michaud of Alpena; Craig LaBlanc of Lansing; Jennifer Ojala of Grayling; Mia Roberts of Ontonagon; and Thomas Wiegand of Sterling Heights.

Some of the Lake State projects, explained and demonstrated at the Regional competition were: a leadership training seminar in Gaylord; a halt-the-deficit survey conducted at LSSU and in Sault Ste. Marie; a Christmas ornament fundraiser; jewelry sales; Winter Carnival 1990; a club fair; a save-energy program; restaurant place mats; and sponsorship of lectures and tours.

Other teams competing in LSSU's bracket included: St. Joseph's College of Rensselaer, Indiana; North Central College of Naperville, Illinois; Inver Hills Community College of Inver Grove Heights, Minnesota; Olivet Nazarene University of Kankakee, Illinois; and Davenport College of Grand Rapids.

Fick & Sons Open Computerized Fuel Station

C. F. Fick & Sons' new Pacific Pride Commercial Fueling System has replaced gas station attendants with computers.

Pacific Pride is a nationwide fueling network that started on the west coast and has spread across the United States and Canada. It was designed primarily for commercial carriers, but anyone can apply for a credit card. The card system is especially good for the individual whose job requires him to drive great distances and would benefit from a detailed record of his gas transactions.

The computerized credit card system allows commercial carriers to purchase fuel from any Pacific Pride fueling station and receive a single monthly bill itemizing each purchase.

"If our customer goes from our home site in Grayling to a site in Grand Rapids, his billing all come back to his home office," said Scott Fick, vice president of operations. He said the location on the invoice indicates the fueling site and Fick pays a small commission to the site indicating their customer to use their facility. The commission principle works the same for out-of-town carriers who use the Grayling site.

Fick compared the Pacific Pride Commercial Fueling System to a bank automatic teller machine with various locations. The customer inserts the access card into the computer station and enters the necessary code numbers. When the computer accepts the information, it directs the customer to use the pump.

Pacific Pride has about a dozen locations in Michigan and is getting more all the time.

The new system replaces Fick's old key system, which Keith Bodi, Pacific Pride account manager, said was a manual system that required each purchase to be entered into the computer individually.

"It was a very laborious task," said Bodi. "The record keeping that Pacific Pride furnishes with its invoice is superb."

Bodi said Charlie Fick, founder of C. F. Fick and Sons, was looking for a system that would allow his distributorship to tie into a national franchise and provide service to commercial carriers who needed access to fuel supplies 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Pacific Pride's computerized invoice contains 14 different pieces of information including: location, date and time of the purchase, drivers name, type and quantity of product purchased, price per gallon, and total cost of the transaction. Fick said this service was especially valuable for fleet management.

Other advantages to the Pacific Pride fueling system include a credit card that does not have an annual fee, the end of keeping track of numerous receipts, no added charge to the cost of fuel purchase, and a credit card that allows the owner to set limits on the type and quantity of products that can be purchased.

ABWA Plans Annual Business Associate Night

The A.B.W.A.'s Annual Business Associate Night will be at Chief Shoppenagon's, Tuesday, May 15, with a Social Hour at 6 p.m. and Dinner at 7 p.m. Price is $12.50 per person and the theme of the night will be 50's & 60's.

Tickets are available from any A.B.W.A. member or by calling Donna at 348-5435.

A.B.W.A.'s "Woman Of The Year", Darlene Fenn, will be honored and the "Business Associate Of The Year" will be announced and honored.

Dance to the music of "The Bondaraz", 50's and 60's type music and bring back the "memories."

Fick's fuel station is also equipped with an underground catch basin to capture any major fuel spill.

Will computerized fueling stations eliminate the need for conventional gas stations? Fick said he did not think so. He said their fueling system is a credit card only business and there are still people who prefer to pay cash for their purchases.

"Others watch the prices of fuel and are not particular to brand," he said. "The extra service we provide (detailed records) some people don't need and other services provided at a gas station such as convenience store items, auto mechanic work and wrecker service we will never offer."

"Our system, per se, won't revolutionize the industry," said Fick, "but it is more and more the trend of society, in general, to use telephone cards, automatic teller machine cards, and even some grocery stores now allow credit cards. The world is more and more accustomed to using a credit card to obtain a service and then paying for the service at a later date." He said many of the major oil companies are installing credit card readers at self-serve test station locations in different parts of the country.

Future plans include installation of a canopy over the pumps and they intend to expand their franchise with other branch locations.

The Pacific Pride fueling station opened for business the last week in March and is located on M-72 West next to the railroad tracks.

Students Launch Bottle Messages

Recently Mr. Hayes' fourth grade reading class was involved with a fun project of sending a bottle message. The students previously read a story about how messages were sent across oceans in a bottle. Mr. Hayes' class of three years ago had done a similar project, and for whatever reason the bottle was found over one hundred miles upstream from where it was launched on the Mississippi River.

This year his class prepared two bottles. One group of students had their bottle launched on the Ohio River at Covington, Kentucky, and the other group of students had their bottle launched at Cottonwood Point, Missouri, on the Mississippi River. Mr. Hayes and his class hope to get a response before the end of the school year.

AuSable Valley Youth Service Bureau Moves

The AuSable Valley Youth Service Bureau have moved to 203 Huron. After having been located at their old location on M-72 West for nine years, it was felt that a move closer to the local Department of Social Services and the local Community Mental Health office would be beneficial to the clients being served.

The public is invited to stop by and see the new office (next to the Craig Combs State Farm Insurance).

Bits of Talk

By Fay Bovee

Ryan Hindmarsh, who attends Clarenceville High School in Livonia, will be spending a month in Japan this summer as part of the YFU program. Ryan, the son of Wayne and Jinnie Hindmarsh will spend from July 13 to August 14 with the Fujisaki family in Tomisat, Chiba, Japan. The father is an engineer, the mother a homemaker, and there is a daughter, Aya, age 17, and a son, age 14.

Alva and Eva Stephan have returned to their Grayling home after spending the winter in Florida.

Art and Monica Weideman visited their two sons and their families during April. They went to Dayton to visit Tom and his family and to attend the christening of their grandson, Peter Carl Weideman, on April 29. Peter was born on December 28, 1989. In Indianapolis they visited the Bill Weideman who had moved there from North Carolina last fall.

April birthdays were celebrated when Cal and Sue Brenner, Buzz and Betty Stephenson, Leo and Lucille Bagrosky, Ken and Peg Carlisle, and Dick and Jean Raab went out for dinner. The Brenners were hosts for cocktail hour and the group went to Holiday On The Lake at Houghton Lake to fete Cal, Sue, Betty, Leo, Ken, and Dick's birthdays. All of them have recently returned from the winter spent in Gulf Shores, Alabama, except the Dick Raab's who spent the winter in Florida.

Chapter Forming For Military Retired Officers

An effort is being made to establish a Chapter of The Retired Officers Association in Northern Lower Michigan. All retired military officers, their widows, National Guard and Reserve Officers, former officers, as well as active duty officers are urged to contact: Lt. Col. Ervan L. Amidon, 3782 Incochee Trail, Traverse City, 49684, 1-616-946-8948; or Lt. Col. Donald K. McClure, 855 N. Marion Drive, Traverse City, 49684, 1-616-941-0408 for details.

Local Students Earn Degrees

Pamela Lewis and Kimberly Stockton, both from Grayling are among 3,000 May graduates at Central Michigan University.

Lewis received a bachelor of science degree in health care administration. Stockton received a bachelor of science degree in education with a major in English.

Local H & R Block Office Recognized

H & R Block franchises in Grayling and Gaylord won honors at the annual H & R Block Appreciation Banquet held March 31 at the Park Place in Traverse City.

H & R Block of Grayling, owned by Daniel Blamer since 1986, won the award for the Greatest Percent of Growth in number of returns.

In announcing the Office Award, Autie Lamb, District Director of Satellite Franchises, mentioned that Mr. Blamer has been with H & R Block for six years and presented him with a six year Service Award. She further noted that in June 1989, he passed the Treasury Card Exam becoming an enrolled agent.

5 Local Students Join Chapter

Five Crawford County residents were accepted into Alpha Omicron Gamma, the chapter of the Phi Theta Kappa National Honors Society that is active at Kirtland Community College. The chapter recently held their Initiation Ceremony for qualified students on Friday, April 27, 1990.

Phi Theta Kappa is the only National Honor Society for two-year colleges that is recognized by the American Association of Junior Colleges. To qualify, a student must have a minimum g.p.a. of 3.0, a minimum cumulative of 15.5 credit hours, and be working towards completion of an Associates Degree.

New Members from Frederic are Lori Bentley and Sheri Earl. New Members from Grayling are Doretha Fowler, Laurie Hoggard, and Lorraine Yousif.

Savoie Earns Aquinas Degree

Ann Marie Savoie, daughter of Phil and Rose Savoie of Grayling, graduated cum laude from Aquinas College in Grand Rapids on Saturday, May 12, 1990. She has a double major of mathematics and business and is employed by American Actuary Co. in Grand Rapids.

New Conservation Club Hatches 1st Service Project

Just before Earth Day, members of the newly-formed Camp Grayling Conservation Club initiated their "Bird House Contest '90." Bird house kits were made available to every third and fourth grade student in the Crawford-AuSable School District. After minimal assembly and installation at their home, students will watch for bird activity, and listen for the sounds of baby birds. The first registered student reporting verifiable baby birds in their house will be awarded a new bicycle.

The Camp Grayling Conservation Club, founded in January, 1990, is a member club of Michigan United Conservation Clubs. Its membership is open to all who share in concerns for environmental preservation, public education, and enjoyment of nature. Other projects planned for future months include hunter safety instruction, youth firearm education, outdoor survival, and deer and turkey feeding programs. Current strength of the club is over eighty members, with most from Crawford County, but with some living as far away as Grand Rapids, Lansing, Detroit, and Michigan's Upper Peninsula.

Bird house kits, with materials donated by Weyerhaeuser Corporation, were distributed to 314 students in grades three and four of Grayling Elementary, Frederic Elementary, and Calvary Baptist Academy. Help from family members is authorized for the assembly process of sawing, nailing, gluing, and painting. The birds must also do their share to furnish a nest and baby birds. Local varieties of bluebirds, tree swallows, and sparrows will be the most likely residents, with baby birds predicted to hatch in early June.

Students were informed that when they first hear the sounds of baby birds, they should immediately call Mr. Wally Walsh, secretary of the Camp Grayling Conservation Club, at 348-3700. The first caller whose baby birds are verified, will be taken shopping for a new bicycle suited to his or her size and tastes, to be purchased locally from Club funds.

At a session of said Court, held in the Courtroom, Grayling, Michigan, on the 24th day of April, 1990.

Present: HONORABLE WILLIAM A. PORTER, Circuit Judge.
On February 27, 1990, an action was filed by GLORIA JEAN MOLOGIANES, Plaintiff, against JAMES CONSTANTINE MOLOGIANES, Defendant, in this Court for an absolute divorce.

IT IS ORDERED that the Defendant, JAMES CONSTANTINE MOLOGIANES, shall answer to take such other action as may be permitted by law on or before June 14, 1990. Failure to comply with this Order will result in a judgment by default against said Defendant for the relief demanded in the Complaint filed in this Court.

A Look At Our Past

Page 17 -- AVALANCHE -- Thursday, MAY 10, 1990

23 Years Ago May 11, 1967

The United States Naval Nuclear-Powered submarine Grayling is scheduled to be launched June 22 at the U.S. Naval Shipyard in Portsmouth, New Hampshire. This word was received today from Lt. Commander Seward of the Portsmouth, New Hampshire Shipyard and who is in charge of arrangements for the launching. The call was made to the Chamber office to ascertain if any Grayling residents would be making the trip to witness the launching.

American Legion Wolverine Boys' State is a program for young citizens of America. Its purpose is to develop the responsibility of leadership; to prove the advantage of citizenship; and to promote the art of clean sportsmanship. Douglas Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilson of Grayling, has been chosen by the American Legion Post 106 of Grayling to attend Wolverine Boys' State on the campus of Michigan State University in East Lansing June 14 to 21. David LaGuire, son of the late Merrill LaGuire of Flint and now making his home with his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fick of Grayling, has been named by the Boys and Girls Committee of the Kiwanis Club to represent them at Boys' State on the Campus of Michigan State University.

The St. Mary's Ladies annual mother and daughter banquet was held at Vert's Lone Pine Inn Sunday, May 7th, following the 8:30 mass at St. Mary's Church. There was a record attendance of 91, with many here from out of town. Chairmen of this year's banquet were Mrs. Fraser Dean and Mrs. Earl Whaley. Present from St. Mary's School were Sister Cecelia and Sister Lawrence Therese.

May 12th has been set as National Hospital Day in commemoration of Florence Nightingale's birth 124 years ago. Open house has always been held at our local Mercy Hospital on that day; however, due to war situations, no observance of the day will be held this year at the hospital. The late Mr. Rasmus Hanson, envisioning the future need of Grayling, conceived the idea of a community hospital, heading the list of contributors, together with Dr. O. Palmer, who donated the site for the hospital, plus the generosity of nearly every person in the county and some outsiders, the project was made possible and in August of 1910 the ground was broken for the new hospital building, to cost in the neighborhood of $25,000. The hospital became a reality on March 28, 1911.

Miss Shirley Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D.H. Murray, will represent Grayling High School in an invitational Typewriting contest Friday afternoon, May 12 at 1 p.m. Shirley gained the right to enter the inter-school finals by defeating nine other finalists last week in eliminations in the local typing classes. She topped Betty Smith and Caroline Post, who were second and third respectively. In between typing contests will be a shorthand and transcription contest among four students of the first year stenography course, Helen Gould, Dorothy Smith, Shirley Nelson, and James Small.

Lamm, Amos Hoesli, Charles E. Moore, Ernest Hoesli, Ernest Borchers, Fred Barber, Emil Niederer, Liland Smock, and Pat Walmsley. All report big catches and claim the perch were "Whoppers."

Miss Mary Jane Joseph of M.S.C., East Lansing, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A.J. Joseph. In Wednesday's issue of the Detroit Times was a picture of Sgt. Bernard Feldhauser cleaning up between trains at the Central Depot, where hundreds of servicemen freshen up before they are greeted by their families. Bernard is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Feldhauser.

A very nice time was had when the people of Maple Forest gave a farewell party at the town hall honoring Clyde Smith, Carl Richter, and Charles Owens. A delicious potluck lunch was enjoyed by all. Carl Richter and Charles Owens left for the Navy on May 10th.

Mr. and Mrs. David Lowe spent the weekend in Mio visiting Mr. and Mrs. Herman Frank. Mr. Frank is Mrs. Lowe's brother.

69 Years Ago May 12, 1921

The first baseball game of the season was played here Sunday when the M.C. Rails blew up before a big crowd of spectators and humbled themselves before the All City team to a tune of 22 to 1. Clarence Johnson and Claude Cardinal did the battery work for the All City and A.L. Johnson and Kenneth MacLeod for the Rails. Holger Hanson is manager for the All City and Mike Brenner for the Rails.

Church Hosts Singer

Nick Clark will be in concert at 11 a.m. on May 13 at the AuSable Valley Church of God, Frederic. A relative newcomer, he has performed a number of concerts all over the state of Michigan and some in Florida since 1988.

His music is southern gospel and he received much of his training from singing in church and attending the original Stamps-Baxter School of Music which is run by the renowned Speer Family.

Candy Sales To Help Library

The friends for the Frederic Community Library are selling candy bars. The proceeds of this project will go to the Library Building Fund.

The Bible Speaks

I John 1:1-4 Part #2

The Heart of I John

Knowing intimately and personally God as manifested in the flesh, fellowshiping with Him, and rejoicing in Him is the heart of the book of I John. Christianity is based upon historical facts communicated by disciples who knew the person they were promoting. "That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life; For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us." (I John 1:1,2).

Receiving the revelation of the divine trinity brings us into the unique position where we can fellowship with God.

"That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ." (I John 1:3). To know God and fellowship with Him is the highest of human achievements. The great apostle Paul reminded us of this in Philippians 3:10, "That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death." This becomes our calling as Christians. "God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord." (I Cor. 1:9). This fellowship is a natural response of our love to God. "Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him." (John 14:23).

From Calvary Baptist Church

Theologians have reminded us for centuries that the chief end of man is to glorify God and enjoy Him forever. True personal knowledge of God and fellowship with Him is not only the highest human achievement, but consequently brings us the greatest amount of joy. "And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full." (I John 1:4). The Psalmist knew this centuries ago. "Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore." (Psalm 16:11). The prophet Habakkuk said in 3:18, "Yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will joy in the God of my salvation." Our Lord Jesus Christ told His disciples, "These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full." (John 15:11).

Jesus Christ intimately as your creator, and redeemer who loved you and washed you from your sins in His own blood? (Rev. 1:5). Are you experiencing His fellowship and joy? This is God's plan for every Christian fully surrendered to Him.

A mother's love begins before she feels the first faint flutter of life. It grows as she awaits this new individual who is developing as a unique person with his or her own distinct qualities.

A mother's love continues through endless diaper changes and sleepless nights, through report cards and puppy love. She rejoices in each triumph and grieves with each tragedy...always there...nurturing and loving.

God is like that...always there... watching over us as we learn and grow... or stumble and fall. He has created each of us as a unique individual. Yet, we share one common need...God's strong and loving care which can guide us along the paths we encounter as we travel through our lives.

Reach out to God with faith as we pray for His guidance and as we thank Him for mothers everywhere.

Sales Professional $100,000+

or more in Annual Commissions
And that's averaging only one sale a day! As you can see, this is an opportunity without an earnings ceiling.
In my nine years with NRC I've made millions of dollars for my elite sales team. Now I need a few more outstanding salespeople to join me and this aggressively expanding, dynamic national firm.
I prefer filling my positions by referral, so it's rare when I run an ad like this. So if you are motivated and when you sell now, you may be the person I'm looking for.
Call today for an appointment and free brochure.

Resource Review

By Bruce Patrick,
Conservation Officer

Hunter education has come a long way since Kentucky instituted the first formal firearm safety course in 1946. Such training is now mandatory in 44 states and will probably soon be required in the rest. Additionally, most Canadian Provinces require formal training or testing.

In Michigan, the program was informally initiated in 1945 and has been mandatory since 1971. Recent legislation requires either a safety training certificate or a previously issued hunting license be produced prior to purchase of a new license by anyone born after January 1, 1960. Over 1,110,000 hunters have been trained in Michigan since the program began. Each year, about 25,000 more hunters are trained in Michigan and over 650,000 are trained in the United States by nearly 50,000 active instructors.

The end result of this undertaking is that sport hunting is one of the safest activities around, which debunks the feeling of some that hunters are a bunch of trigger happy outlaws. A feeling which, by the way, is not uncommon in northern Michigan. It is up to the true hunting sportsmen to rid their ranks of the elements which cause this misconception.

A Hunter Safety class will be held May 19th and 20th at the Northland Sportsman's Club in Gaylord. Call 732-5662 or 732-5950 for further information.

Doodles from the Tall Timber

by Wendall Hoover

Spring has sprung, at least according to the flowers. Some might have been a few days early, but not by much. If you have been around some of the hardwoods in the area, it is obvious that the Trillium is out. Arbutus and Adonis Tongue is also in bloom. Flowers such as the Marsh Marigold, Gold Thread, False-Lily-of-the-Valley and Gay-wings have to bloom early in order to have all the sun they require before the leaves come out fully on the trees. The flowers of early May will go through the blooming and fertilization period because they aren't shade tolerant, but yet they need the more fertile, moist soil of the forest to grow in.

The early flowers are often delicate in shape, color and fragrance. Do not put off seeing them as they will not be around long.

Remember the 17th and if you are interested in a walk through the Pines, meet on the porch of the Visitors Center at 7:30 p.m. Leave your flashlight home, dress for a cool evening and be prepared for the Pines at twilight.

Hobby Club Plans Mother Daughter Banquet

The Frederic Hobby Club's Annual Mother and Daughter Banquet will be held Monday, May 14th, 5:30 p.m., at the clubhouse. This banquet is open to the mothers and daughters of the community. You are asked to bring a dish to pass and your own table services. You must pre-register to attend. For reservations call: Linda Copeman 348-4998, Eva Ritter 348-7161, or Annabelle Armstrong at 348-8008.

Verse or Worse

By Joe Murphy

ANGELS OF MERCY

What do nurses do after they retire?
If that question ever entered your mind
I think I can supply the answer
They continue to serve mankind

After so many years in service
You think they would have their fill
But they're not the kind to turn their backs
On folks that need their skill

Elsie, Bernice and Juanita
Are three nurses that come to mind
And three finer people
Would be very hard to find

When the Blood Mobile comes to our town
You're sure to find them there
Proudly wearing their Red Cross Nurse's pin
For they're the kind of folks that care

Where ever their skills are needed
In the service of their fellow man
They'll be there showing concern
And doing all they can

Now I'm not saying they're the only ones
But they've worn that pin a long time
And when I think of special effort
Those three ladies come to mind

I think they offer a fine example
Of the way we all should live
To offer in the service of mankind
What ever skills we have to give

Animal Care Tip

According to the Humane Society of the United States, the U.S. Congress designated April 1990 as National Prevent A Litter (P.A.L.) Month.

You can commemorate it all year long if you remember to be a P.A.L. to your pet:

Prevent A Litter. Have your pet spayed or neutered.
Provide A Leash. Don't allow your dog to run loose and keep your cat inside.

Purchase A License. If your dog or cat does get lost, identification can be its ticket home Pet A Lot. Give your pet your affection, attention, time, and companionship.

Spread the "Be a P.A.L." message to friends, neighbors, and organizations. For more information, contact the Companion Animals Department, the Humane Society of the United States, 2100 L Street NW, Washington, DC 20037.

Count On Us To Care

Sometimes, in the routine and the rush of every day, we forget: Caring is what Mercy Hospital is all about.

Every single employee contributes to our ability to care for our community - not just for one week of the year, but day in, day out, 52 weeks of the year.

There are many people and places to which the community can turn for compassion. At Mercy Hospital, they also find the know-how, skills, energy, technology, and information essential to healing and health.

Thanks to you, we can not only care about, but take care of the members of our community. They count on us. We count on you.
